

Professional License Verification Report

Professional License Verification Report Summary

- This report verifies information about professionals whose credentials are essential to their job performance.
- Examples of licenses verified include CPA, FAA, RN, admittance to the bar and medical / dental licenses.
- Report turnaround times average 1-3 days.

Features

- The following information is typically returned: licensing organization, date license was obtained and date of expiration.
- An additional "Notes" field allows for any actions related to the license to be listed as well as the license number.
- Verifications are performed personally by Selection.com staff members.
- The following information is required to perform verifications: name of the individual, type of license to be verified and state of issue.

